Interpretation of CovAb™ Test Results

If there are two lines, both C and T (even faint test lines), the test is positive for antibodies to COVID-19

If there is only a C line, the test is negative for antibodies to COVID-19

If there is no C line, the test is invalid and the test should be repeated with a new kit.